About Ping Me Happy

Ping Me Happy, launched in 2025 by Ingenious Partners Ltd, is reimagining how people connect in the digital age. Headquartered in Stratford-upon-Avon, UK, the platform makes sending uplifting messages simple, affordable and eco-friendly. Its signature Pings are unique numbered digital greetings that combine text, images, animations and AR experiences designed to celebrate, connect and spread positivity instantly.

With the launch of its flagship Wall of Kindness, Ping Me Happy is disrupting outdated, costly and environmentally harmful ways of communicating. By blending the best of digital greetings and social sharing, the company is creating a safe and inspiring alternative to traditional social media and greeting cards. The goal is to build a foundation for connection and spark a global movement in kindness.
